

Women inpower

WIP 2010 Series

Living On Purpose: How to Maneuver Your Business In 2010

Join WIP for an evening of exceptional discussion about today's most challenging issues, moderated by our own Lisa Wexler, host of The Lisa Wexler Show

Date: Wednesday, January 20th

Time: 6 - 9pm

Location: Westport Women's League, 44 Imperial Avenue, Westport

rsvp: events@wipct.com

Is your business on point?

Do you grab an audience with your passion?

Do you know all the financial solutions available to you?

Do you network effectively and efficiently?

Find out all this and more! We have assembled a team of experts to tell you how to take your passion higher in the areas that matter most to your business - Business Planning, Communications Impact, Financial Strategies, and Networking that works. Get the keys to successful business growth for 2010 with cutting edge solutions from women who know.

We have put together a powerful panel to get you the hard answers you're looking for in today's environment.

Kathy Caprino, Ellia Communications

Kathy is an expert in breakthrough coaching for women who are re-engineering their life and career. She is also author of Breakdown. Breakthrough.

Diane DiResta, DiResta Communications

Public speaking & communications expert. Author of best-selling guide Knockout Presentations: How to Deliver Your Message With Power, Punch, and Pizzazz.

Anne Evans, District Director, US Department of Commerce

Our insight into government programs and networks that women can use to build their business further.

Kathy McShane, The Kendrew Group

A marketing and networking enthusiast and founder of the "Exceptional Women" series a network for unique and driven women like yourself

The WIP Team -- Dr. Ellen Mahony, Carolina Fernandez, Margaret Wagner and Lisa Wexler - are committed to challenge and drive you to success in 2010. And with that we've assembled an amazing panel of women to help us do just that.

We'll have time for questions, so come prepared with what you desire to know to build your business this year. And be sure to put your business card on the WIP Bulletin Board - an invaluable resource of contacts for networking year round.

Drinks and light hors d'oeuvres served.